

SAVE THE DATE

April 26-28 • 2012 in Durham, North Carolina

Announces the Sixth Annual Gathering of Leaders

Great Schools Are Not an Accident:
Successful Learning Communities for Boys and Young Men of Color

The 6th annual Gathering of Leaders will showcase schools and their promising practices for educating boys and young men of color.

N.Y.U Professor Pedro Noguera will be a featured speaker.

For more information: www.coseboc.org

Registration opens on December 1, 2011

The mission of COSEBOC is to re-imagine and transform schooling for boys and young men of color. COSEBOC is the only national organization of educational practitioners solely focused on their educational success. COSEBOC connects research, policy and practice.

Hosted by North Carolina Central University, Durham Public Schools and the Durham Association of Educators